record since he has been in school is one which any runner should be proud of. He was picked by all four of the papers this fall for half back position on the all-high school year, as he is a fine sprinter and can travel some in the middle-distance events. He showed his ability at Convention Hall in the indoor meet last year, and it was his run-

GEORGE H. HAMILTON.

eleven. Hamilton has been elected captain of the football eleven again for next year by a unanimous vote. He was captain of the championship eleven this years, and a big factor in bringing the bunting to the O Street School. He is counted on for a number of points to the track team in the spring meet next ning that landed Central first place Hamilton graduates in 1912, and his loss to the track and gridiron will be severely felt. Hamilton did most of the punting for the Blue and White school in the gridiron battles. His ability on the track was a big factor in the dual meet with the Episcopal High School last year.

CRACK DISTRICT HIGH SCHOOL ATHLETES-NO. 3.

street northwest, of Central High School, has an enviable athletic record.

George is eighteen years old, stands five feet eleven and one-half inches, and weighs 173 pounds. His schoolmates have not given him a nickname, and he is called plain George. Hamilton has made a name for

George H. Hamilton, son of Charles A. Hamilton, of 1032 Lamont

He does not play baseball, but should he try his hand at the diamond sport, it is predicted that he would shine. Hamilton is a natural leader, and one of the most popular boys at Central. He is planning to enter the University of Virginia after he graduates from the local school,
